

Name:

Date:

Period:

Alexander the Great and his Cities

For this activity, you will be finding out more about Alexander the Great and his conquests through the cities he founded! First, you will investigate your assigned city in your group, then you will find out about more cities founded by Alexander the Great from other groups through brief class presentations.

Prediction

Are Alexander the Great's cities important? Should they exist?

Basic Information

What is your assigned city?

What modern day country is it located in?

Approximately what year was the city founded? _____

Why was this city founded by Alexander the Great?

Does this city still exist today? Circle either: Yes or No

Name:

Date:

Period:

Is Alexander the Great good or evil?(based on what you know only about this one city)

Background Information

What events led to this city being founded?

How important was this city for Alexander the Great during his conquests?

Do you believe Alexander the Great should have created this city?

How important was the founding of this city for the native people in the region this city exists/ existed in?

Name:

Date:

Period:

City-

Location-

Dated/Date-range Founded-

Reason to be founded-

Importance-

City-

Location-

Dated/Date-range Founded-

Reason to be founded-

Importance-

City-

Location-

Dated/Date-range Founded-

Reason to be founded-

Importance-

City-

Location-

Dated/Date-range Founded-

Reason to be founded-

Importance-

City-

Location-

Dated/Date-range Founded-

Reason to be founded-

Importance-

What are some of the central themes for these cities being founded by Alexander the Great?

Name:

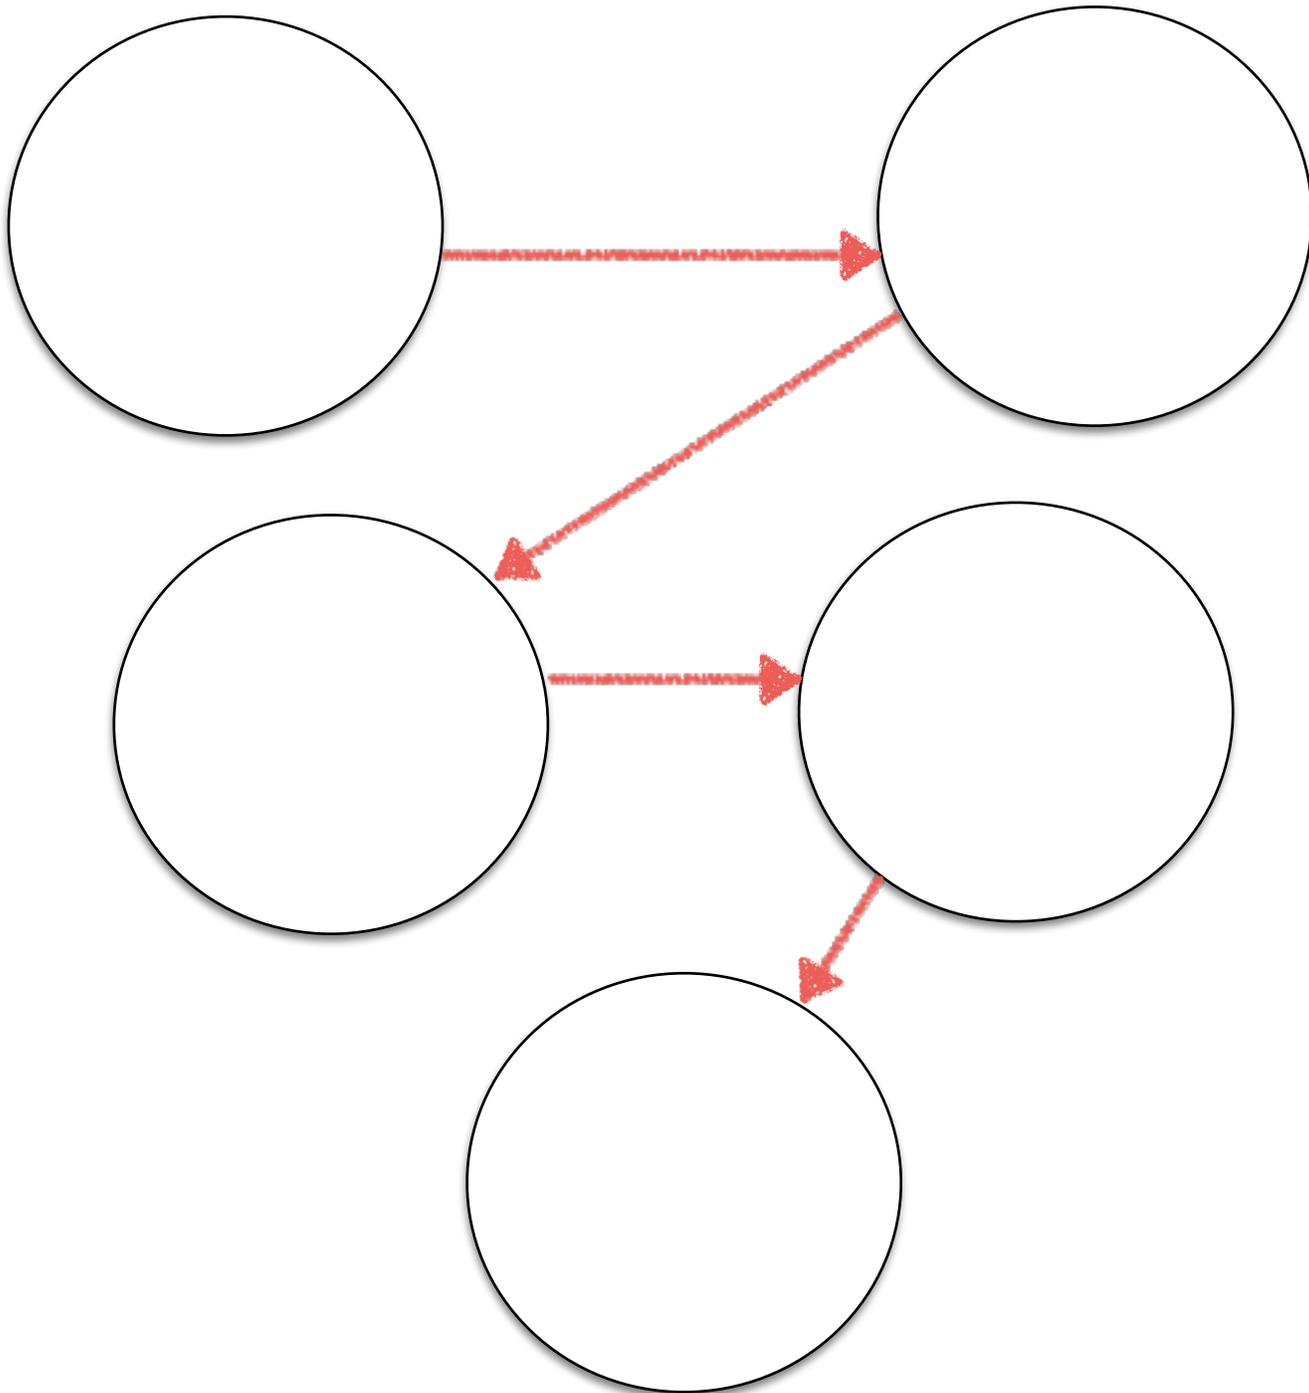

Date:

Period:

Concept Map Activity

In this activity, you will have to map out whether Alexander the Great was good or evil, by selecting certain events in his life and conquests and map out how each event connects to one another and points out his evilness or good nature.

You must have at 5 life events of Alexander the Great included, that are explained as to how each make him either good or evil. At the end please summarize how you connected each event together, and explain how all the event together show Alexander the Great's true reputation!

Name:

Date:

Period:

Explanation of concept map and Alexander the Great's reputation:

Name:

Date:

Period:

Flip of the Classroom!-for tomorrow 4/23...

http://www.dailymotion.com/video/xrmzdd_alexander-the-great-ancients-behaving-badly_shortfilms

and

Info Sheet on Alexander the Great

Based on this video and info sheet, please write down 6 aspects of Alexander the Great's life that make him seem either good or evil

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.